Altar flowers today are given by George Monken in honor of his wife, Vicki.

Ancient civilizations and religions all metaphorically describe the voice of the divine coming through thunder and lightning. We often describe experiences of insight as a “sudden flash,” “seeing the light” or “rocked my world.” Storms of life can make way for moments of insight, like the sun radiating in a clearing in the woods, that can offer us direction, helping us to negotiate life’s path and see our unique place in the world.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: At this also my heart trembles, and leaps out of its place.

People: Listen, listen to the thunder of God's voice and the rumbling that comes from God's mouth.

Leader: Under the whole heaven God lets it loose,

People: and God's lightning to the corners of the earth.

Leader: After it god's voice roars;

People: God thunders with a majestic voice and God does not restrain the lightnings when God's voice is heard.

Leader: God thunders wondrously with God's voice;
